

Knowledge Organiser

Prime Learning Challenge: Can you catch me?

Key language

I think _____ .

I want _____ .

It has _____ .

I can see _____ .

First _____ .

Next _____ .

Then _____ .

Key facts

- At the beginning of the story of The Gingerbread Man, the little old lady bakes a gingerbread man.
- In the middle of the story of The Gingerbread Man, lots of people and animals are chasing the gingerbread man.
- At the end of the story of The Gingerbread Man, the sly fox tricks the Gingerbread Man and gets him to climb on his head while he swims across the river. He eats the gingerbread man!
- The story of The Gingerbread Man is a traditional tale because it is known by so many people and has been told for a long time. It has parts which you can join in with, such as 'Run, run, run as fast as you can, you can't catch me I'm the gingerbread man!'
- It is very important to wash your hands before you do any baking or cooking so you don't spread germs which could make you or other people ill.
- When you bake something in the oven it changes. The gingerbread dough changes from being soft and squidgy to hard and warm.

THE GINGERBREAD MAN

