Key facts: castles

- Stories have three essential components, a beginning, middle and an ending. They also have characters; these are people that are in the story.
- Stories also have settings which is where the story happens and where all the events of the story take place.
- A plot is all of the events that take place in the story. They are what make stories exciting!
- Castles often have kings, queens and heroes living in them. Many stories talk about dragons that live near castles.
- Dragons are big monsters which have special scales over their body to protect them. They can fly with leathery wings and breathe fire.
- Many stories talk about how dragons defend treasure and how heroes must battle the dragon.
- Castles are big structures which are made of stone. They have turrets and towers so soldiers can defend them and keep them safe.
